

My Homework Matters: Spring 2026

My Environment Matters...

Could you create a geography quiz for the class to take?
Ideas could include:

- Physical/human geographical features
- Continents/oceans/rivers/mountains

Or

You are stranded on a desert island, how would you make life sustainable e.g. clean water, food, shelter? What adversities would you have to face? You could create a 'how to survive life on a desert island' guide.

My Faith Matters...

WWJD- How did Jesus deal with inequality and exploitation in his life? What could we learn from Him which could help us when we are facing unfairness in the world?

What do different religions teach us about diversity and equality?

My Talents and Ideas Matter...

How could you use your talents to share your great ideas about our new topic? Remember - anything goes just so long as it related to our topic and it interests YOU!!

My Homework Matters!

Is the world fair for everyone?

Concepts: Equality, Diversity, Exploitation

Homework Matters Showcase:

Thursday March 19th

My Learning Matters...

I complete my daily tasks

Reading- at least 15 mins

Times Tables- 10 mins

Spellings- Daily

My Lifestyle Matters...

Fairtrade is a fantastic example of how we can limit exploitation and inequality- can you think of any other ways to make the world a fairer place?

Research a global business that supports Fairtrade- what do they do to make the world a fairer place?

My Family Matters...

Should children be allowed to do everything their parents can do? Can you film a debate between you and your parents arguing yes or no, flip a coin to decide whether you have to argue yes or no.

School uniform / clothes. We have so much lost property and this is often not reclaimed – is this fair when there are some children who cannot afford uniform that fits properly or is warm enough? Design a poster / advertising campaign targeted at children in the school to encourage them to look after the clothes they are lucky enough to have.

Other People Matter

Could you investigate an inspirational person who champions equality eg – someone who has opposed racism or promoted neuro-diversity?

You could write a biography about this person or write a letter to them voicing your opinions.

Can you write a speech that you could deliver to the class/school on an important global issue?

The Bible says in one of its proverbs: "Treat others as you would like to be treated" Another famous quote about fairness from Eleanor Roosevelt is "It is not fair to ask of others what you are not willing to do yourself." How can these be put into daily practise?

My World Matters

Not everyone lives somewhere they can enjoy spotting a variety of local wildlife. Can you suggest ways of encouraging wildlife into the school environment to allow everyone to experience nature in their lives?

There are lots of endangered animals on our planet. Which animal would each member of your family want to save, why have they chosen this particular animal and how would they increase their dwindling numbers? How will you present your findings?

Are the worlds resources divided fairly? If you were a "World Pesident" what would you do to ensure equality and that people were not exploited
